

Above Food Launches Industry Leading Regenerative Ag Technology Company

REGINA, Saskatchewan, December 23, 2021 -- Above Food Corp. (Above Food), a first-of-its-kind, vertically integrated, plant-based food company, announced today that it has launched a new wholly-owned subsidiary, Discovery EARTH Sciences Inc. (Discovery EARTH).

Discovery EARTH was developed to provide emerging technologies, testing, certification, and auditing for regenerative agricultural practices in North America. Discovery EARTH will utilize proprietary advanced genetics, soil genomics and seed genomics, that will yield healthy and whole nutritious foods, while supporting a healthier, sustainable EARTH.

Discovery EARTH combines the pedigree and intellectual property of Discovery Seed Labs, that was founded in 1994 with the regenerative production technologies developed by the Above Food founders to create, validate and facilitate, North America's most advanced regenerative agricultural production platform.

"We see an opportunity to provide farmer producers with the tools and technologies to implement regenerative agricultural practices through proprietary soil and seed testing technologies and focused genomics. We also provide our consumers with a trusted and certified stamp of comfort in knowing their products are being produced through a regenerative and environmentally sustainable process, every step of the way, from seed to dinner plate", said Lionel Kambeitz, CEO & Co-Founder, Above Food Corp. "With this addition to the Above Food platform, we have brought all the necessary disciplines together to create a stronger, more secure, vertically integrated supply chain."
